Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Lieutenant Colonel Scott W. Redd's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Lieutenant Colonel Scott W. Redd has devoted more than 24 years of his life to the service of his country with 11 of those years directly affecting the soldiers of the South Dakota National Guard. He dedicated himself to the assistance of soldiers as the Senior Army Advisor, also supporting the Engineer Corps, Golden Coyote Exercises, mobilization training and service in support of Operation Desert Shield/Operation Desert Storm and Operation Iraqi Freedom; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Lieutenant Colonel Scott W. Redd continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Lieutenant Colonel Scott W. Redd for more than 24 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 10, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
